Thank you for inquiring about Casco Bay Dog Training Club's classes. This information sheet provides you with all the basic information you need to choose the right class for you and your dog to come to the first class prepared. Classes are normally 7 weeks long and meet approximately for one hour per week and cost $105.00. Please note: the classes below are not offered all the time. Class offerings vary upon demand and instructor availability. If you have questions, please contact the registrar at the above number.

PUPPY KINDERGARTEN                      Offered on: Beginning, Tuesday, May 3, 2011 @ 6:30 p.m.

This class is designed for puppies aged 8-20 weeks. The purpose is to provide safe socialization, guidance on the wonderful but trying developmental stages that all puppies go through and to cover the groundwork of the basic obedience skills all puppies (and owners) need. Specifically, we will cover sit, down, come, walking nicely on lead and general manners, with particular emphasis on helping you build and maintain a positive and rewarding relationship with your dog. PLEASE DO NOT BRING YOUR PUPPY TO THE FIRST CLASS.

BEGINNER BASICS                              Offered on: Beginning, May, Tuesday May 3, 2011 @ 7:30 p.m.

This class is designed for all dogs over 20 weeks. The purpose is to cover all the basics plus provide help for individual behavioral issues. Specifically, we will cover sit, down, come, walking nicely on lead and general manners with particular emphasis on helping you build and maintain a positive and rewarding relationship with your dog. PLEASE DO NOT BRING YOUR DOG TO THE FIRST CLASS.

BEYOND BASICS                                Offered on: Wednesday, May 4, 2011 @ 6:30 p.m.

This class is designed for all dogs over 20 weeks who have completed either Puppy Kindergarten, Beginner Basics, or who have been evaluated by an instructor and found to understand "the basics." We will be building on foundation skills and improving consistency. Specifically, we will work more on walking by your side (heeling), increasing time and distance on "stay," adding lots more distraction while working, and focusing on the skills you and your dog want to improve upon. This class can vary a lot depending on the student's needs and skill level.

CANINE GOOD CITIZEN                      Offered on: TO BE DETERMINED

The CGC is a certificate program offered by the AKC (American Kennel Club). The CGC consists of an examination that tests your dog's basic obedience and manners. It is a great way to assess your dog and get credit for your training. Casco Bay Dog Training Club, Inc. offers CGC preparation classes and CGC testing annually, and occasionally more often.
